SESSION INFORMATION

The papers in this envelope are the paperwork part of your photo session. Basically, I just ask that you fill out the following documents and return them to me.

Please return these items along with your non-refundable deposit of 50%. If necessary, your deposit may be applied towards a future photo session. Your deposit holds your chosen date for you.

Please note: If you choose the photo session only without the CD, your photo session fee includes only my time and talent in taking your photos. All prints and digital negatives must be purchased separately.

A word about copyright: The Federal Copyright Law protects copyrighted images. It is unlawful to photograph, copy, or scan any of our images without our express permission. Even though the photos may be of you or your family, we still own the copyright to the image. We try very hard to keep our print prices as low as possible to enable you to have every copy of my images that you would like. If you own the CD with print release rights, you may print directly from the CD. You also have permission to copy the images onto another CD. You may use the images however you see fit to use them.
